PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Revenue Operations and Sales Operations leader with a record of building scalable processes, fixing broken systems, and creating clarity in fast growth SaaS environments. I combine hands on sales experience with operational, analytical, and technical skills to design GTM processes that improve forecasting accuracy, pipeline health, and overall revenue performance. I own CRM administration, automation, data quality, and cross functional alignment, partnering with Sales, Marketing, Finance, and leadership to streamline workflows and remove friction. Known for stabilizing chaotic environments and building repeatable systems that improve visibility, speed, and decision making. HubSpot certified in Revenue Operations, Reporting, and Sales Software.
